page 75 of the Report

23. The system of providing free quarters and of granting a house rent allce in lieu obtains in certain Depts. such as the Medical, Education, University, Railways, Police and Military

24. Free quarters and House rent allowances are undesirable on principle and in the case of officers on high salaries (such as Principals of Colleges) also unnecessary. The concession of free quarters and of house rent in lieu may, therefore, be withdrawn as a general rule

25. Instances requiring special treatment should be very rare. Such are the cases of employees in hospitals and in charge of prisons or hostels where duties compel them to live in. In cases of this kind where it is not possible to provide an officer with free quarters, a reasonable allowance by way of rent may sometimes be given but this should be made conditional on his providing himself with quarters in the near vicinity of his institution concerned

26. Officers who are entitled to free quarters as part of their terms of employment stand, of course, on a special footing

[On an examination of the various suggestions of the Retrenchment Committee, it is perhaps necessary to consider the cases of house-rent allowances or rent-free quarters in the Gardens Dept. The appendices to the Report do not contain the names of the officers of the Gardens Dept. It is for ours whether the enquiry proposed maybe made.]

OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR,

Lal-Bagh, Bangalore, 23rd February 19 32.

Dear Sir,

Your D.O. letter No.E.3272 of the 17th instant reached me in Mysore as I was leaving for Bangalore. About the terms under which Mr. Javaraya is occupying the Government Quarters in the Lal-Bagh I am not aware of any correspondence having taken place. The building occupied were the official quarters of the Curator of the Lal-Bagh. When according to G.O. No.7793-5/G.M. 574-17-5 dated 26th October 1918 Mr. Javaraya was appointed Assistant Superintendent, Government Gardens, Mr. Bishtopanth Badami having reverted to the Account Department and when Mr. Y. Rama Rao was appointed as Curator in charge of Hill Stations, Mr. Javaraya ipso facto occupied the quarters vacated by Mr. Rama Rao by virtue of his appointment.

Yours sincerely,

B. T. KESAVA IYENGAR, ESQ., B.A.,
